GENERAL

RIVERBIRCH/RIVERROCK CALL ME MISTER CGC

Thank you to Keke Kahn for awarding General Winners Dog and Best of Winners at the Ozarks Kennel Club.

Now that we've finally finished moving, building fences and barns we have started back on the trail to finish his General's Championship.

He has been such a great sport with our move from California to Missouri and putting up the silly puppy "Rayne".

☺ Barkley continues with his great therapy work at Kaiser Permanente. He is loved by Sharon & Roger Rendall.

Animal Assisted Therapy Comes to Panorama City Hospital

Barkley, Sophia, and Nick are unusual visitors for patients at our Panorama City hospital.

That's because they are the four-legged kind!

Barkley is a Great Dane, Sophia is a Chihuahua, and Nick is a Standard Poodle. And they are all visiting our hospital patients as part of our new Animal Assisted Therapy program.

Kaiser Permanente Panorama City has teamed up with the Delta Society to provide this service for our members.

Animal Assisted Therapy is a therapeutic tool to facilitate patients in achieving positive health affects. The handlers and the dogs visit with patients in their rooms where the patients may pet them and even have the dog lay with them for awhile.

The dog handlers provide this service on a voluntary basis and both the handler and the dogs go through a screening process to become members of the Delta Society. The dogs are highly trained, go through a veterinary check up, and are well-groomed before coming to the hospital. While they are here, both the handler and the dog are easily identifiable by their uniform including the Delta Society symbol.

To further add to their credentials, our visiting pets have been issued mock "employee" badges with our KP logo!

All patients and volunteers are required to wash hands before and after petting the dog and the dogs only visit with appropriate patients on appropriate floors.

For a complete Animal Assisted Therapy schedule, please visit the Voices website at <http://voices-pc>.

Pediatric inpatients enjoyed a recent visit from "Nick" the poodle.

Great Dane sits on intruder, holds him down for deputies

Woman and her husband foiled what appeared to be burglary attempt in their home with help of dog, officials say.

By SALVADOR HERNANDEZ
THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

LADERA RANCH – An intruder in a couple's home early this morning may have been out to find some loot, but instead he was met with a crutch, a baseball bat – and a Great Dane, which held him down until deputies arrived, authorities said.

When the Ladera Ranch couple discovered a man inside their home, they didn't have handcuffs to hold him down. Instead, their 180-pound pet sat on the man and kept him down for deputies, said Lt. Ted Boyne of the Orange County Sheriff's Department.

The incident began at about 2 a.m. today on Thornhill Street, when the woman went into the living room of the home and found 22-year-old Zachary Chanoski, Boyne said. The woman screamed, prompting her husband to make his way there.

The husband had recently undergone surgery on his leg and was in a cast. He used a crutch to walk to the living room, and when he saw Chanoski, he used his crutch to take him down, Boyne said.

His wife then grabbed a baseball bat and helped her husband, he said.

"Then Marmaduke sat on him," Boyne said.

The large dog was able to hold down the man with his weight until deputies arrived to take him into custody. Firefighters responded to the home to treat the burglar for minor cuts and bruises, Boyne said.
